

BOSTON MARKET HIGHER TODAY

RECEIPTS TOTAL 70,000 POUNDS—
HADDOCK OPENS AT $7 THIS MORNING.

Despite the severe storm yesterday, a fleet of 19 vessels came through to the fish pier and offered their catches when the market opened this morning. Receipts were not large, however, and totalled only 400,000 pounds of groundfish and 100,000 pounds of mixed fish. Due to small receipts today and anticipation of perhaps smaller landings later on, the market advanced sharply.

Haddock sold for $7; large cod, $10, and markets, $5. The weather has still been unfavorable for mackerel catching, and the netting fleet has been inactive. A few small lots of mackerel arrived by rail yesterday.

The first trip of lobsters of the season from New Brunswick was brought to the Hub yesterday by the gasoline boat Fannie, Capt. LeBlanc, from Seal Harbor.

LONE DRAGGER ONLY ARRIVAL

GILL NETTERS LANDED LARGE
FARES OF POLLOCK YES-
TODAY.

Fresh fish receipts continued light here this morning, there being but one arrival, a dragger, with 30,000 pounds of haddock. All of the netters hugged port last night, but a few of them broke away this morning to take a chance with the weather. Gill netters landed large amounts of fresh pollock yesterday, some of the fish being shipped and the rest going to the splitters.

Captain Near Death

Capt. C. Stedman Richard, master of the Boston sch. Harold G. Foss, owned by Foss & Crabtree of 141 Milk street, is at St. John's hospital in Brooklyn, N. Y., in a serious condition and with little chance of recovery. He is suffering from a broken back, sustained when he fell from the spankerboom of his vessel November 3, while she was on the way from New York to LaVela de Coro, Venezuela. The schooner put into Mayaguez, Porto Rico, where the injured skipper was sent to a hospital and operated upon in an effort to save his life.
